Story of elegance rewritten at Taj Samudra

Posted on

The renovated lobby

The Taj Samudra Hotel was reopened following an extensive renovation project. Taj Samudra has introduced the newly renovated Taj Club rooms and renovated suites including the new Presidential Suite.The renovation by David Edwards, Interior Designer – James Park Associates showcases a perfect blend of stylish design elements and heightened comfort. The hotel also has seven meeting rooms, including a 140-year Heritage block with four halls boasting of stunning colonial architecture.“The recent investment in Taj Samudra has enhanced its reputation, being widely appreciated for its peerless view of the Indian Ocean, wide-ranging culinary offerings and unparalleled luxury experience. The hotel makes an ideal location for all local and international conferences and is a venue of choice for couples looking to exchange vows," Rohit Khosla, General Manager – Taj Smudra said.The hotel offers varied dining experiences at the Lobby Lounge—Lattice, YUMI—serving authentic japanese marvels, Navratna—the Indian restaurant, Chinese specialty restaurant—Golden Dragon, Latitude—all day dining multi cuisine restaurant and at the Steak and Grill House which serves finest continental food with an exquisite selection of wines.Pebbles is the exciting new addition to Colombo's lounges to engage in a game of pool with friends while savouring an outstanding range of sweet and flavourful delicacies.