

Stratford Avenue, the place for shoppers

Posted on

Dhanak, one of the stores on Stratford Avenue

Stratford Avenue is a street that first gained popularity with Gandara. Full of timeless antiques, delicate paintings, practical home ware, tasteful craftsmanship from around the world, it is frequented for art lovers and casual visitors. Gallery Red also has a permanent showcase along with weekly exhibitions.

A stop in the morning down this road is sure to last till evening, and one can guarantee repeated visits as this street always has a surprise just waiting around the corner.
