Suriya, a leading lifestyle store in Sri Lanka, held its grand opening in Torrance, California. The diverse collection of products at Suriya’s latest outlet caters to the highest Sri Lankan tastes and life style. The range of products include ebony elephants, ceramic plates, handbags, purses, cushions, table mats, brassware, oil lamps, spoons, mugs, candles and gifts for all occasions as well as uniquely interesting household wares rarely seen. The Guests of Honour Consul General Hector Weerasinghe, Dr Walter Jayasinghe, Mohan Chandramohan and Raja Edirisuriya lit the traditional lamp marking the launch of the lifestyle store.

Suriya is an interior decor solutions provider and a retail showroom showcasing Sri Lankan fine furnishing, handicrafts made by the rural artisans and craftsmen spread out along the length and breadth of Sri Lanka. In line with Suriya’s vision to become a world renowned “Sri-Lankan brand ambassador”, the outlet in California is the brand’s first overseas retail store.
