

Thaproban Pavilion Resort and Spa opens its doors

Posted on

Minister Basil Rajapaksa, Minister of Economic Development unveiling the plaque while Chandima Weerakkody, Deputy Speaker, Sumanadasa Abeygunawardena and Preshan Dissanayake, Managing Director of Thaproban Pavilion looks on

Thaproban Pavilion Resort and Spa opens its doors

Thaproban Pavilion Resort and Spa nestled in Unawtuna, Galle recently opened its doors amidst an entourage of distinguished guests. The Chief Guest at this special occasion was Minister Basil Rajapaksa, Minister of Economic Development while Chandima Weerakkody, Deputy Speaker, Manusha Nanayakkara, MP for Galle District, Shan Wijayalal De Silva, Chief Minister of the Southern Province, Sumanadasa Abeygunawardena and many other prominent guests graced the occasion.

The Resort and Spa is equipped with 16 spacious rooms divided as Pavilion residence, Pool Pavilion, Ocean Pavilion, Centre Pavilion and Premier Pavilion and all the rooms are arrayed with a myriad of amenities to indulge guests. The 15 metre long and four metre wide pool overlooking the ocean give ample opportunity for guests to enjoy the beautiful scenery present.

Food available at Thaproban Pavilion Resort and Spa includes a fusion of western and local seafood cuisines while guests are also able to indulge in various other Sri Lankan dishes. The Resort has a spa with well versed professionals to help the guests to relax and unwind with ayurvedic and western spa rituals. Besides the spa treatments, guests can also benefit from the wellness experts who will conduct an holistic analysis upon request to aid in each guest's rejuvenation process.

[nggallery id=581]