Thaproban Pavilion Waves opens in Unawatuna

Posted on

Open skies, sea breeze and ocean sounds set the scene for al fresco dining Thambapanni Leisure introduced its latest luxury hotel Thaproban Pavilion Waves. The opening of the hotel is in time for the winter season.

This brand new addition to the company’s portfolio of properties is located in Unawatuna, Galle.

The hotel was built with an investment of 250 million rupees and opens its doors to guests this month.

Thaproban Pavilion Waves caters to the Sri Lankan as well as high-end European markets. It is composed of 51 rooms and its facilities include a rooftop restaurant, sky bar, sports bar, two swimming pools, gymnasium, kiddies’ corner and a spa.

Suites decorated in subtle shades at Thaproban Pavilion Waves

The hotel also intends to set a new standard with the introduction of a number of environmentally friendly features.