Trivana Lotus Spa opened at Arcade Independence Square in Colombo. The ceremonious ribbon was cut by Chief Guests – K H Nandasiri, Chairman, Thejana Industries as well as Dwatmaji Hanomanresi, The Counsellor, Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia.

Trivana Lotus Spa specialises in quality and rejuvenating treatments enjoyed by the Indonesian Royalty. Trivana’s Balinese treatments include facials, body scrubs, body wraps, full body massages, manicure as well as pedicure. The spa provides special packages, including ‘The Signature’, ‘Couple’s Massage’ and also ‘Total Relaxation’.

Harshi Herath, Managing Director, Trivana

Putu Murgiana, Director, Trivana stated, “In the recent years, there has been an increase in awareness of health and wellness in the world. While most of the spas in Sri Lanka offer ayurvedic oil and fragrances, Trivana is designed to bring the best of Bali. Expert therapists use exclusive essential oil, body wash and cream all which are for rejuvenation. These oils and fragrances are carefully used to ensure deep and relaxing for each individual. Accupressure techniques ensure every customer is refreshed after our spa treatment.”

Harshi Herath, MD, Trivana explained, “Trivana is not only a venture, but it’s also a passion and a fulfilment of a dream. At Trivana, we incorporate the best of Balinese and Sri Lankan cultures, and tradition in the use of oils and lotions combined with the acupressure and massages.”
