The latest Turret showroom at World Trade Center

TURRET, the designer store for luxury watches, writing instruments and leather accessories opened an outlet at the World Trade Center's third floor with easy access to all of the city's executives, businessmen and corporates.

This outlet features luxury brands Montblanc, Baume & Mercier and Raymond Weil side by side. TURRET has been awarded 'sole authorized retailer' status for these world famous brands, which consequently makes it the only chain of stores in the city to sell all three brands under one roof. The flagship store in Colombo 3, is fully equipped to provide all repair and maintenance for Swiss brand watches.

Montblanc is a luxury brand with German origins that dates back to 1906. It is known for exquisitely handcrafted writing instruments, timepieces and accessories for men. The Montblanc emblem is a symbol of excellence – the very pinnacle of luxury writing instruments, timepieces, and leather products.

Baume & Mercier is the seventh oldest watch brand in the world and is artfully crafted in Switzerland, in the Swiss Jura. Baume & Mercier timepieces are handmade using high quality materials and contain unique designs renowned the world over.

Founded in Geneva in 1976, Raymond Weil is one of the last remaining Swiss independent family-owned and family-operated watchmaking companies. With music having always been the brand's source of inspiration, Raymond Weil is well-known for its watchmaking excellence, creative design and high quality standards.
