United Colors of Benetton and Sisley launches its A/W 2014 Collection

Posted on

United Colors of Benetton and its up-market extension Sisley are two of the most versatile clothing brands for the mass-market to come out of Europe. The 2014 Autumn/Winter Collection from United Colors of Benetton and Sisley are now in Sri Lanka.

The collections comprise of a comprehensive array of comfortable clothing ranging from jeans and slim-fits in differing colors. The latest arrivals contain a range of clothes and accessories for ladies, gents and kids featuring collections — Sweet Autumn, Venetian Holiday, Urban Chic, Everyday, True Blue and Heat wave. These will undoubtedly help one make a distinctive fashion statement.

With smart casual designs combined with dark, mystic colors the slightly more up-market Sisley range helps redefine elegant chic for infotainment age.

These freshly arrived collections from United Colors Benetton and Sisley are currently available at the luxury brand store—TURRET, and it expands and updates the currently available range of casual wear of Denim and Capri with matching tops of stripes and floral designs set in chromatic color schemes.