Vamos, having opened its doors six months ago, provides a collection of sporting gear, catering to nearly every type of sportsman. Cricket, football, basketball, netball, hockey, tennis, badminton, squash, table tennis and swimming are just some of the sports for which you can find plenty of mid to top range sporting equipment at any budget-range. Vamos is also the agent for a variety of top brands including Dunlop, Slazenger, Carlton, Stiga, BDM, AS, Grays, KG, SS, Molten, Ihsan and Gatorade, all of which are available at the store. In addition to sporting goods, Vamos also sells a variety of branded sportswear and casual wear clothing.

The main objective of Vamos is to give the Sri Lankan consumer quality branded products at an affordable price, thus helping them to compete and perform.

Vamos has its doors open all year round except on Poya days and special holidays. It stays open till 7.30pm on weekdays, making it a convenient stop for shoppers.

The introduction of the novel ‘Vamos Priviledge Card’ will reward loyal customers by offering them discounts on a points system, which can be redeemed or accumulated for later redemption. Other benefits of the card are access to information such as sports news and special promotions.
