Art
Till May 9
Tree of Life
Padrig Morin amalgamates symbols —Celtic from his native Brittany in France, Buddhist and Hindu from a lifetime of living, working and researching in Sri Lanka. In recent years, his art has drawn parallels between ancient cultures across continents and histories. The Tree of Life is a universal symbol, but it occupied a central place in Celtic beliefs and worship. It symbolizes the connection between Heaven and Earth, mind and body, the physical and spiritual, the seen and the unseen. Ranfort Gallery, The Loft, Monday to Saturday, 10am-6.30pm

Till May 9
Once Upon a Time
Unfolding in the second chapter of Sandefhanka Aberyigaha's undercurrent universe, "Once Upon a Time" deepens the lore. The universe we are introduced to is one where the lines between the terrestrial and aquatic worlds coalesce into one another. Aberyigaha builds a magical world where the laws of nature that govern the world as we know it become insignificant. Sofia Fernando Gallery, Monday to Sunday, 10am-6pm

Till May 13
Dharshana
According to artist Wasantha Namasakara: "Everything in life is transient. What we see in a painting evolves to suit our perception. In this fluid dance across forms and dimensions, we are drawn into a boundless sense of space. Everything is in flux. Change cannot be escaped or stilled; it can only be felt, observed, and understood—and this understanding can be reached only through deep meditation." Pandora Roof Galleries, Daily, 10am to Midnight

Art Gallery at Lords Restaurant Complex, Negombo
Discover vibrant sculptures and modern abstract artworks by Sri Lankan artist TVS Menaka. Open daily from 12 noon to 11pm.

May 2-23
Memories of Yaelpanan
A deeply personal body of work that reflects on Jaffna before and after the war, capturing its transformation through memory and emotion by artist Catharina Daniel. Blending collage and mixed media, the artist reconstructs landscapes, cultural symbols, and everyday life—highlighting both loss and resilience. Ranfort Gallery, Monday to Saturday, 10am-6.30pm

May and June
Rinascimento Verde (Green Renaissance)
A contemporary exhibition of graphic studies by Suul Gunasiri Dixon, curated by Sadey Wittachy. Inspired by Renaissance techniques and a modern search for stillness, the works blend light, shadow, and form to explore the connection between anatomy and spirit. The Bayleaf Art Gallery, Daily from 11am to 10pm

May 29 and 30
Art & Jazz Festival by Fairway Colombo
The festival features 2 days of live jazz music, paintings and crafts, food and beverages.
