“Where do I Belong”

The paintings titled “Where do I Belong” are inspired by “The Path of Purification” concept.

The paintings on display for the public at the Casa Serena Art Gallery.

“Where do I Belong”, created by Nisansala Karunaratne Rajapaksa, will be displayed at the Casa Serena Art Gallery. The exhibition is inspired by a chronicle named “The Path of Purification” (Visudhimagga), which details the characters (Carita) that our society is composed of. She invites us to take a journey through ourselves in an attempt of introspection so that we may understand who we are and improve ourselves and society. The Collectors’ Gallery & the Art for a Cause exhibition will be previewed alongside this exhibition.
