Places to visit

Ambuluwawa
Surrounded by many mountains including Piduruthalagala from the East, Bible Rock (Bathalegala) from the West, Sri Pada (Adam's Peak) from the South and Knuckles Mountain Range from the North.

British Garrison Cemetery
Nestled against the hillside is the British Garrison Cemetery, imparting a sombre aura as tombstones and black headstones mark the final resting places of British and Europeans.

Giritale
Giritale tank (lake) is truly a gem within Sri Lanka’s intricate and extensive ancient irrigation system. Giritale holds that magnetic effect capable of drawing in and holding large flocks of diverse avian fauna.

Hanthana Mountain Range
A charming mountain range which is a good trekking spot.

Kandy Town
The Kandy town is ceaselessly abuzz with activity. The railway station and market are scenes of chaos mixed-up in human theatrics. Strings of shops crisscross the streets and by-roads, selling almost everything from garments, shoes, bags, phones, electrical items and home appliances to knick-knacks.

Kandy Lake
The Kandy Lake is perfect for relaxing. A drive around the Lake provides more highlights of Kandy. The historic Malwathu and Asgiri Temples are situated along this route.

Kala Wewa
One of the largest reservoirs in Sri Lanka, built by King Datusena during the period of 459–479AD. One can witness the laid back nature of village life around. The Maha Kadawara Devalaya, dedicated to the divine protector of the Kala Wewa—the Kadawara Deity—was located facing the massive tank. The Dutugemunu Aranya Senasanayama is within the premises.

Kitulgala
A famous hub for water based adventure programs including white-water rafting. Surrounding by spectacular scenery with forest-covered hills and kitul palm trees.

Knuckles Mountain range
The mountain range is a paradise for those who like to hike and mountain bike as it offers numerous mountain trails that cross spectacular scenery such as clear crystal rivers, dense forests, flowing waterfalls and lush plantations.

Nelum Wewa
The hot water springs found here are at a temperature of 62°C! The reason being that these hot water springs in fact connect to others in the island such as the hot water springs of Kanniya, Trincomalee and Maha Oya forming a network of springs through the earth’s crust and thus to maintain a healthy source of water at other regions the three additional wells were closed off at Nelum Wewa.

National Ironwood Forest (Jathika Namal Uyana)

Namal Uyana (Pink Quartz Mountain Range) abounds with natural beauty and its tranquility and stillness encourage visitors to search for spiritual fulfilment. Sri Lanka’s biggest concentration of ironwood trees are found here.

Pussellawa
Many interesting places to visit including tea plantations, Chariot Path, Peacock Hill, and Kotmale Valley. Also here is the Sri Kathirvelayutha Swami Kovil Murugan Temple, originally built in the 1880s.

Randenigala
The Victoria Randenigala Rantembe sanctuary is nestled between the Knuckles range and the Central mountains of Kandy.

Sembuwatta Lake
A beautiful man-made reservoir located in Elkaduwa, Matale. The lake is bordered by Cambell’s Land Forest reserve and situated at an elevation of 1,140m.

Wiltshire Mountain Range
A less explored mountain range in Matale, with wildflowers and Carribean pines. Ideal for trekking.

Cultural Sites

Anuradhapura
A city of immense historical and religious significance, revered as the holiest and oldest Buddhist city in Sri Lanka.

Aukana
The massive Buddha statue that had been carved out of a single rock stands peacefully amidst the temple precincts in the sacred city of Anuradhapura.

Dambadeniya
Situated about 31 km from Kurunegala, it served as the capital of Sri Lanka in the mid 13th century. Much of Dambadeniya still lies buried on a huge fortified rock.

Polonnaruwa
A city renowned for its ancient ruins, Polonnaruwa’s kingdom once reigned supreme over the island for a relatively short period, from the 11th to the 13th Century. Its archaeological square is a great place to experience age-old artefacts; tombs, stupas, structural remains of temples and statues.

Pidurangala
A large and unusual rock formation that sits alongside the Sigiriya Rock Fortress, the two icons dominate the landscape. Pidurangala like Sigiriya, has historical ties to King Kashyapa and is an ancient monastery complex.

Sigiriya
The eighth wonder of the world, the rock fortress of Sigiriya ‘Lion Rock’ – is a 500 foot monolith, rising magnificently out of the dry central plain. The ascent begins at an entrance way through a large carving of a lion; the remnant of its stone paws clearly noticeable. The frescoes are a highlight of the massive complex built by King Kashyapa.

Yapahuwa Rock Fortress
Yapahuwa is famed for the rock fortress and the stone lion. Drive past the quaint town of Kurunegala, ringed by a giant boulder shaped like a kneeling elephant, and then emerge into a peaceful country where history sleeps.
