‘Yala On Canvas’ Wildlife Art Exhibition At Elephant Reach

Posted on

Yala on Canvas, a pencil art exhibition will be one of many attractions among the series of events and programmes organised by the Elephant Reach hotel in line with its sixth anniversary celebrations. Artist Lalith Senanayake teams up with the management of Lanka Event Management to bring a different kind of an art exhibition with ‘Yala on Canvas’. The proposed exhibition will be held in April at the Elephant Reach Hotel premises and will continue for one whole month.The event is expected to attract many fans of art and wildlife as it caters to both these areas of interest. There will be a list of weekend activities during this month covering events such as art workshops, educational sessions and discussion forums by experts on wildlife and conservation aiming at providing entertainment as well as awareness and education.
