Zden Celebrates The Festive Season With Special Offers

Posted on

Notepads and books made out of recycled paper

Home-ware store Zden has a treat for its customers this festive season. Zden is celebrating the season with special offers: discounts of up to 20 percent on selected items in-store from the December 12 to 31, 2011; ten percent off on all items bought online from the December 1, 2011 to to January 15, 2012; gift vouchers purchased from the December 1 to 31, 2011 will be valid forever and ten percent will be waived off the price of the voucher.

Zden offers a vast range of products including porcelain ware, steel kitchenware, hand-painted fabric cushions, wrought iron candle stands, notepads and books made from natural and recycled paper, glassware, wooden items, pillows, bed sheets, table cloths, plants, decorative mirrors, toys, candles, rugs, serviettes, towels and electric appliances. A new selection of handloom, sarongs, sarees, shirts, and shawls have contributed to the colourful interior of Zden.

The inviting exterior of the store is enriched by the magenta and grey walls and piped music. Further enhancing the ambience is the aroma of different types of potpurri available at the shop.

[nggallery id=149]